

Airhead!

The diary of an incompetent air-con apprentice...

MONDAY

Massive hangover after a big weekend... Couldn't get my head 'round work, dozing off in the office... Lucky Max didn't notice - he's busy in the workshop, patching-up an old air-con system he'd found. Reckons he's found a sucker to sell it to - he's never happier than when he's ripping someone off. He's been whistling along to old rock songs by Genesis all morning - totally doing my head in. I'll get out lunchtime and have a little snooze in the park... where the sun beats down as I lie on the bench...

... Monday night, Penguin called, said "Listen, son, you're wasting time, there's no future for you with Al-Cool - join us, come up to town!" Well I know what I like (and I like what I know)... so I'm starting at Penguin tomorrow!

Follow Airhead's diary in the Resident every week...

TUESDAY

First day at Penguin - their new office at the west end of Almancil, by the last roundabout. A real step-up from Al-Cool - and my talents are appreciated! They said they'd wanted to recruit me for ages, 'cos they knew I was brilliant but wondered why I was working with cowboy Max. I said it was cos my dad made me do it. They said no problem, and if I do well they'd make me a partner by the end of the week...!

WEDNESDAY

Today I showed Penguin's technicians how to install underfloor heating.. Went to a posh villa, took up some floor tiles and lowered ourselves into a labyrinth of caves... Some were underwater and we needed special diving gear. But we installed a heat pump and soon the water was lovely and warm...

THURSDAY

Today I led a Penguin solar system installation. We lowered the solar panels by helicopter, and everyone cheered when I turned on the main switch and it worked...

FRIDAAAAAY.....

Wha - ? OMG! It's still MONDAY! I'd dozed off in the office! Just woke to the CRASH! of Max dropping the air-con unit on the floor. "*B*****s!*", he swore as he inspected the split casing. "Lucky the buyer's blind as a bat... a lick of paint and he'll never notice!"

Oh crap - back to reality!

Don't get an airhead, get an expert!
