Airhead!

The diary of an incompetent air-con apprentice...

MONDAY

YES! At last! I made an air-con sale!! Well, I took the order, anyway... Max wasn't there to answer the phone (liquid lunch at the golf club), so I'm claiming the commission - why not? And later, when Max came back (swaying a bit), he actually agreed! "Mind you, if it's your sale, it's your responsibility - so don't cock it up!" "Course not, Max." "Waddaya mean 'course not? You've cocked-up everyfing else since you been 'ere!" (Charming... a 'well done!' would've been nice...)

TUESDAY

Yesterday's order was from a management agent called VillaSure, on behalf of the villa owner in UK. So I borrowed the door key from them, went to the villa and delivered the units, ready to install on Thursday.

Very efficient agent - they immediately paid 50% of the total for receipt of goods. "Nice one - right into my hands..." muttered Max, when I told him. "What d'you mean?" "Oh, nuffin'... just that's very handy, that's all..."

WEDNESDAY

Max's golf day. But when I phoned the club, 'cos I needed to speak to him, they said he and his golf partner hadn't shown up... Odd - 'wonder what he's up to?

THURSDAY

Disaster! Installation day - but I lost the villa key! So I got a spare from VillaSure, but when I went to the villa, all the units had vanished - STOLEN! Then it all kicked-off, with the owner phoning from UK, saying it's our fault and demanding that we supply replacements. But Max refused point-blank: "No way, mate - don't pull my plonker! We delivered as ordered, and VillaSure paid for receipt - blame them!"

FRIDAY

Trembling as I write... Can't believe what happened today... Went with Max to install air-con at his golf partner's house... When I went to note down the units' serial numbers, they'd all been scratched off. "Max, look at this!" I exclaimed. But he just winked and stuffed a €50 note in my hand. "There's your commission, son - now be responsible and keep quiet, geddit?" OMG! I've become a partner-in-crime!
