Airhead!

The diary of an incompetent air-con apprentice...

MONDAY

Total shock! My employer is a crook! Max delivered an air-con system, collected payment to cover its purchase, then STOLE it back and re-sold it to a golfing pal for a knock-down price. What a cowboy - he really does put the 'con' in 'air-con'...! Not clever, though - everyone's pointing the finger at him. But he's getting away with it, 'cos VillaSure (the management agent) signed for delivery, and no-one knows where the stolen system went - except me. I helped install it at his mate's, so... OMG! I have Max in my power! Now's my chance - tomorrow I'll confront him: my price to stay quiet is double-pay from now on!

TUESDAY

That didn't go too well. Max pointed out that I was the one who made the sale, borrowed the house keys from VillaSure, then lost them. And then the system was stolen. "Doesn't look too clever, does it, son?" he snarled. "If I woz you I'd keep my mouth shut and my head down - know wot I mean?" OMG! I've been stitched up!

WEDNESDAY

Max's 'golf day', meaning he was out dodgy-dealing, but I'm learning to keep my head down. Spent all day gathering last quarter's bills & receipts to take to the accountant - booring! But one weird thing - I found a file I'd never seen before. It was labelled 'Max Profit' with a Smiley face alongside, and it listed loads of jobs where Max had written 'Cash no IVA!... I never understand all that stuff, but I suppose the accountant will know what to do with it, so I took it along with all the other paperwork...

THURSDAY

I knew Max's dodgy dealings would come back to bite him on the bum. We just heard that VillaSure are giving all future work to Penguin. Max was very quiet all day.

FRIDAY

Strange - the accountant called an urgent meeting with Max today. And a lawyer was present, for some reason. When Max returned he threw another of his tantrums - and a golf club across the room. Lucky I'd been keeping my head down...!
